Our Hampton model is a lovely manufactured home for sale in the capital metropolitan city of Austin, Texas. The generous open living space in this home design provides a sense of comfort for the whole family. At the same time, your luxurious master suite will offer you some private relaxation at the end of your day with a spa-like bath that includes a roman tub and separate shower, dual sinks and plenty of built-in storage. Other family members will also enjoy spacious bedrooms with walk-in closets and an easy access bathroom. An open concept floor plan features a large island with double sinks and plenty of counter space to pull up seats for breakfasts or perhaps entice your friends with hors d'oeuvres. A large centrally located utility room is an added convenience. Upgrades like the popular black kitchen appliance package are included. See this great family home for yourself and book your tour of our comfortable and affordable manufactured homes for sale at Austin's premier home manufactured community for active adults, The Reserve at Oak Ranch.
